The League of Women Voters is a nonpartisan political organization encouraging the informed and active participation of citizens in government. They regularly hold nonpartisan forums for elections.

A complete list of forums can be found on their website at http://lwvoa.org/candidate\_forums.html.

The League of Women Voters also publishes a voter guide for all communities, with candidates answering questions. To find your city's voter guide go to http://lwvoa.org/voter\_guides.html.

The Oakland County 115 News Hub has interviews with candidates and other articles. Please check out our election page for more info: <http://oaklandcounty115.com/category/election-information/>.

Working
with donors,
corporations,
and nonprofits
throughout the region to create
lasting change.
