(City of Birmingham, Sept. 116, 2016)

Birmingham, MI – Applications to reserve a spot in the 2016 Fall Birmingham Citizens Academy are now being accepted in the City Manager's Office through September 23, 2016. This free, interactive 7-week program is open only to Birmingham residents 18 years or older and is designed to provide a fun, informative learning experience for citizens who want to know how the City of Birmingham operates. Classes will be offered on Tuesday nights from 6-8:30 p.m. and space is limited. The process to start enrollment is to apply using an online application, which can be emailed or sent in via mail. (see link below).

Information on the Fall 2016 Citizens Academy

The City of Birmingham announced Monday, July 11, that it will provide its second Birmingham Citizens Academy program. This free program provides participants with an interactive learning experience and allows residents to find out more about municipal government services, programs and responsibilities. It helps residents understand how the City of Birmingham operates, and how City Departments, Committees and Commissions work together. City residents who are interested in increasing their knowledge about local government operation can apply now by going to the Citizens Academy Application. Applications are accepted on a first come basis.

The Citizens Academy will generally meet on Tuesday nights from 6 – 8:30 p.m. with a graduation on a Monday City Commission meeting. The sessions will be limited to a total of
