

Two Adults, Two Children Found Dead in Rose Township Fire
Rose Township, MI – A mobile home fire Tuesday morning claimed the lives of two children and two adults on Wakewood Court in Rose Township. North Oakland County Fire Authority Chief Jeremy Lintz said the fire is still under investigation with nothing new to report as of noon. The identities of the victims have yet to be released, but Chief Lintz said they believe the victims are two boys around ages two and five, an adult male and an adult female. Two other adult males escaped the fire, which was called in around 5:40 am. This story will be updated as more information becomes available.
